AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF COMPLAINT
Case No. 2:25-MJ-102

Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326(a)

As a result of my training and experience, I am familiar with federal immigration laws, including 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a), which makes it unlawful to illegally re-enter the United States after deportation or removal. There are four elements to this offense: (1) That the defendant was an alien at the time alleged in the indictment; (2) That the defendant had previously been deported, denied admission, excluded, or removed from the United States; (3) That thereafter the defendant knowingly entered, attempted to enter, or was found in the United States; and (4) That the defendant had not received the consent of the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security or the Attorney General of the United States to apply for readmission to the United States since the time of the defendant's previous deportation. An "alien" is any person who is not a citizen or national of the United States. 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(3).

Facts Establishing Probable Cause

On July 2, 2025, Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) Special Agent (SA) Eric Johnson encountered Lino CABRALES-Soto, in Borger, TX, which is in the Amarillo Division of the Northern District of Texas. Immigration records were queried and discovered that CABRALES-Soto is, and was on July 2, 2025, a citizen and national of Mexico virtue of his birth in Mexico. Those records also showed that CABRALES-Soto had been removed from the United States previously, on or about May 08, 2015, at or near, the Port of Departure in Laredo, TX. CABRALES-Soto's immigration records showed that he had not received the consent of the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security or the Attorney General of the United States to apply for readmission to the United States since the time of that previous removal.
